Reiki NZ Inc

CODE OF ETHICS

1. Reiki Practitioners shall practise their profession to the best of their ability for the benefit of the clients. They shall respect a client's right to be treated with care and skill so they receive services that reflect their need.
2. The confidentiality of the client and diagnostic findings acquired during consultation, or in the course of professional treatment, shall not be divulged to anyone without the client's consent except where required by Law, or where failure to take action would constitute a menace or danger to the client or another member of the community.
3. Reiki Practitioners having clients referred to them by another Practitioner shall return such clients to the original Practitioner when the specified treatment is completed. The Practitioner shall respect fellow Reiki Practitioners, other Natural Health Practitioners and medical treatments.
4. Reiki Practitioners shall respect the culture, values and beliefs of the client at all times.
5. A Reiki Practitioner shall not knowingly interfere with any ongoing treatment instigated by another Reiki Practitioner, Health Professional or Medical Practitioner whilst the client is under that Practitioner's care.
6. Reiki Practitioners shall respect fellow Reiki Practitioners and other Health Professionals at all times. If they have reason to complain then they should make an official complaint to the appropriate Association.
7. Reiki Practitioners' premises shall be maintained in a hygienic condition and shall be open at all times to inspection by representatives of Reiki NZ Inc or if they are Chartered by a representative of the NZ Charter Board.
8. Reiki Practitioners shall respect the lineage and degrees of fellow Reiki Practitioners at all times.
9. Reiki Practitioners shall display current Practicing Certificates and this Code of Ethics in a prominent position in their premises within easy viewing of the client.
10. As Natural Health Practitioners Reiki Practitioners are expected to behave with dignity and integrity in all circumstances.

I,, acknowledge that I will adhere to the above Code of Ethics.
